DISTRICT ATTORNEY OFFICE HAVE BEEN FILING FALSE AND MISLEADING REPORTS. This policy has been extreme since 1996 when the A.S.C.L.D. was filed....

What happened to you?

D. Facts: While riding my bicycle Patrick Theodore and Sargeant Scott Fields tried to run me off of the bike. They then chased me and when I hit the ground face down they started punching and kicking me. The deponent was laying face down. The officers did handcuff the deponent and kept hitting him in the head back and facial area see photo...

Who did what?

Then Officer Forgione came and joined in with them. Vincent Hoo-sack did nothing to stop them from beating the deponent. The sargeant broke his hand (scott fields.) punching the deponent in the head.

Was anyone else involved?

The narcotics division uses forced arrests to boost officers to detective status. It is the quickest way to become a detective or a superior officer. The narcotics officers file false arrest reports as a common trend. This policy has been going on for years and no one deals with it. The deponent was also sprayed with mace while he was handcuffed laying on the floor. The use of mace on a captured handcuffed prisoner is forbidden. However this has also happened to other detainees, such as (Martin England) AND WE ARE Queens Residents. see annexed EXHIBIT... James Blair Falsifying police reports is deemed as T E S T I L Y I N G and was identified as such in the dirty 30 scandale.. So far a witness by the name of Marquis Brooks has come forward.

III. Injuries:

If you sustained injuries related to the events alleged above, describe them and state what medical treatment, if any, you required and received. Black outs, headaches back and face pain. The hospital ordered cat scans but has not enforced the issue. Plus the deponents right foot was broken. Left side of face swollen. The black outs still come and go Plus I fear coming home only to be harrassed further. Note sargeant Scott Fields is a defendant in another claim under 05cv 1872. His assault is deemed tampering with a federal witness. The officers reports declare the deponent made no assaultive behavior in arrest number I was beat for evidence...

IV. Exhaustion of Administrative Remedies:

The Prison Litigation Reform Act of 1995, 42 U.S.C. § 1997e(a), requires that "[n]o action shall be brought with respect to prison conditions under section 1983 of this title, or any other Federal law, by a prisoner confined in any jail, prison, or other correctional facility until such administrative remedies as are available are exhausted." Administrative remedies are also known as grievance procedures.

A. Did your claim(s) arise while you were confined in a jail, prison, or other correctional facility?

Yes ___ No XX

E. If your answer to A is YES, describe each lawsuit in questions 1 through 7 on the next page. (If there is more than one lawsuit, describe the additional lawsuits on another piece of paper, using the same format.)

6. Is the case still pending? Yes xxx No

7. What was the result of the case? (for example: Was the case dismissed? Was there judgment in your favor? Was the case appealed?) corporation counsel asked for a conference based upon failure to exhaust the grievance mechanism. But it was a medical emergency and the dreponent used all of the grievance procedures in the jail medical grievance procedure is a procedure with less steps to complete and it worked I was granted heat sensitive housing..

3. What steps, if any, did you take to appeal that decision? Describe all efforts to appeal to the highest level of the grievance process. The police department and the queens supreme court are still addressing the issue.Ia.b. handed downthe complaint to C.C.R.B..

They closed the case before the witness Marquis Brook -s- was contacted. Then reopened and closed again. I.A.B. asked the deponent to accept a plea on the case. I cannot because I was falsely arrested and charged with possession of controlled substance in February of 2007, and now again in April 2007. The lab report in feb. was non existant. But the officer in that arrest falsely testified , to parole ...

T E S T I L Y I N G is common policy in Narcotics division of POLICE PLAZA . IN ALL preceints...

C. If you did not file a grievance, did you inform any officials of your claim(s)?

I Please set forth any additional information that is relevant to the exhaustion of your administrative remedies. The deponent has filed the complaints of which are now in the possession of the POLICE DEPARTMENT AND C.C.R.B. THE Queens district attorney also has copies of the reports, but they condone the officers actions including the cover up .

I fear for my life and thus refused to be released on a plea for parole and the arrest case. NOTE the district attorney of queens is also in the 05cv 1872 claim for filing false reports also

Note: You may attach as exhibits to this complaint any documents related to the exhaustion of your administrative remedies.

WINGATE V GIVES ET.AL.
Index No. 05civ 1872

Honorable Justice Freeman,

I am Blake Wingate the plaintiff in the aforementioned action . I received a response to the request for an ORDER OF PROTECTION FROM A DEFENDANT IN OUR CLAIM OF WHICH IS a police sargeant in the 113th preceint named Saegeant Fields.

Sargeant Fields orchestrated an attack upon the deponent in which I am now receiving Blackouts. The tangential connection of which the corporation relates is a direct connection to the plaintiff Blake Wingate. He was assaulted directly and not (tangentially) by sargeant fields and his friends. Sargeant Fields initiated the assault and the arrest , but did not file any of the police reports.

He passed the case , violating POLICE PATROL GUIDE RULE 208-20 . ***

ON page 443 of the 2007 Police Patrol Guide of New York. The fact remains is that SARGEANT Fields conduct was totally unprofessional and the C.C.R.B. has already been cited and made publically known for excusing abusive conduct by N.Y.P.D... see news paper article of the Daily News by Kiersten Davis From Aug to Oct 07 This information is also on-line.

Pursuant to 18 U.S.C.S. 3144, Sargeant Fields is a hostile material witness , of which has been cited for previous violations for his illegal searches and arrests. The fact that we are in a FEDERAL Prosecution for another illegal arrest and then he orchestrates a second illegal arrest and assault against this deponent causing the deponent to be incarcerated for a felony and misdemeanor, is a question of his actual state of mind. The remaining factor is the deponent Blake Wingate refused to be released because he would have been released into his (sgt. fields) precinct the 113th... The assault on the deponent was a mystery until he received the actual C.C.R.B. reports as he does not recall seeing Sgt. Fields. His identification remained a mystery as far as facial because he never had a meeting with the deponent as he was supposed to in the investigation of the prior case, and my memory is very bad based upon the beating.

The deponent Blake Wingate was scheduled to go home in July of 2007. But not knowing whom caused the assault caused him; he refuse the release from Parole and the Case itself in order to be protected from further abuse. The felony charges were dismissed in less than 1 month. Thus an A misdemeanor only carries a 1 year sentence. The 1 year is almost up and He will have to leave jail soon . The citation of C.P.L. of N.Y. sec. 530.13 People v Debo 234 a.d.2d 944 does not override the fact that we are also in a Federal litigation of which the civil crimes are also federal crimes. For instance , false arrest and incarceration leading to peonage violations is cause for 18 U.S.C.S. 1581-1595, of which no judge or party is immune from prosecution.

The civil procedure for the same incident is listed under 42 U.S.C.S. 1994.. The crime of peonage was completed as the said plaintiff Blake Wingate was convicted illegally for a crime of which was committed by another person , known to the prosecutor and the arresting officers and they still persecuted the defending petitioner . THE APPEAL IS STILL ILLEGALLY PENDING PAST THE 2 YEAR LIMIT. 13th amendment U.S.C... Santiago v Philadelphia 435 F.SUPP. 136.. and there has always been concurrent jurisdiction of State and FEDERAL COURTS in prosecutions of this violation of this section UNITED STATES V Mc Clellan 127 F 971....

The deponent respectfully stated he is an intimidated witness in all of his cases and not only his criminal trial , and the source of intimidation is a Police Sargeant with a gun and a terror team of officers whom also have guns and they already beat the deponent to the point that the sargeant broke his hand while beating the defendant.

The claim of the issue of orders of protection only for people that may be subjected to danger , bodily harm or annoyance from another is completely correct and I suffer from it and have been suffering from the said act since 2003... People v SMITH 4 Misc 3d 909 , 782 NYS2d 596.

The credible reason for the assault is for the deponent to be silent against SGT Fields or more will come. I recently was released in Feb. of 2007 for another unlawful arrest for possession of drugs in the 113th preceint and there were no lab reports. but I had to take disorderly conduct in order to be released. I am tired of giving out convictions for non existant crimes.

18U.S.C.S. 1513 specifically details the illegal conduct of Sgt. Fields and for the corporation counsel to omit this fact shows extreme prejudice to the health and well being of the deponent and may constitute a conspiracy for committing a hate crime..

I Blake Wingate hereby request a hearing with Sargeant Fields to determine the conduct expressed herein and for such other and further relief as deemed to be just and proper.

CIA trashed terror grilling tapes

BY LEO STANDORA
DAILY NEWS STAFF WRITER

THE CIA VIDEOTAPED interrogations of two top terror suspects that used techniques denounced as torture and then destroyed the tapes so they couldn't be leaked to the public, it was revealed yesterday.

CIA Director Michael Hayden said the videos were shot in 2002 and destroyed three years later after the Abu Ghraib prisoner-abuse scandal in Iraq surfaced.

Vids showing harsh methods called 'security risk' if leaked

He said they were destroyed so the identities of the questioners would not be compromised.

The agency began taping interrogations as an internal check after President Bush authorized the use of harsh questioning methods.

Those methods included waterboarding, which simulates drowning, government officials said.

In a letter to his staff, Hayden wrote that the tapes were destroyed in "an absence of any legal or internal reason to keep them."

He said they "posed a serious security risk," and explained, "Were they ever to leak, they would permit identification of your CIA colleagues who had served in the program, exposing them and their families to retaliation from Al Qaeda and its sympathizers."

The CIA said it had taped only the interrogation of the first two terror suspects in its custody, one of whom was Abu Zubaydah, who talked about alleged 9/11 accomplice Ramzi bin al-Shibh.

Zubaydah's information and the subsequent arrest of bin al-Shibh led to the capture in 2003 of Khalid Shaikh Mohammed, the purported mastermind of the 9/11 attacks, officials said.

NYPD BIG IN ARREST QUOTA FIX

Capt. allegedly caught ordering cops to meet monthly goals & fudge stats

AN NYPD captain was allegedly caught on tape ordering cops to meet arrest quotas and falsify crime reports, the Daily News has learned.

Kieran Creighton, commander of the NYPD Housing Police Service Area 8 in the northern Bronx, is under investigation for a tirade that went out over the police radio, sources said.

The incident allegedly occurred in the spring when Creighton ordered at least eight members of an undercover anti-crime team to a meeting in Pelham Bay Park to berate them about an alleged lack of arrests, sources said.

"You can't make the nine collars a month, then we'll all have to go our separate ways," Creighton told the officers, according to an internal complaint obtained by The News.

Anything less than nine arrests would be a "personal slap in the face," Creighton allegedly said.

Creighton then told the cops to "finagle" the times of arrests so any overtime was paid for by a federally funded anti-drug program, the complaint alleges.

Unbeknownst to Creighton, one officer had his NYPD radio switched on — so the captain's 10 to 12 minute speech was broadcast to Bronx precincts in Morrisania and Schuylerville and taped by a 911 dispatcher.

"Your entire conversation with the C.O. [commanding officer] just got broadcast over the radio," came a frantic call from the PSA desk officer to one of the cops attending the May 15, 2007, meeting in the park, according to the complaint.

on Sept. 12, sources said. On Monday five of the officers at the meeting were debriefed by IAB about the incident.

"All you have to do is go to the tape and see what was said. Very simple," a police source said. "But so far, the brass doesn't want to touch up the tape."

A high-ranking source confirmed that the complaints were being investigated but countered that the tape contained nothing damning. The source also said underlings routinely complain that higher-ups are pushing quotas and juggling crime statistics even when neither claim accurate.

The allegations stemming from the meeting were among a laundry list of complaints filed against Creighton by his subordinates. At least one sergeant complained that Creighton was trying to suppress the number of felony crimes reported by having supervisors reinterview victims, the complaint alleges. The goal was to turn felony complaints into misdemeanors, sources said.

Creighton repeatedly told subordinates that it was his "job to keep crime down."

"The captain would say, 'Are you sure the victim was really assaulted? Maybe the victim got cut with a fingernail, not a knife. Once is a joke. Over and over is a pattern,'" a police source said.

Tawdry massages add

BY RICHARD WEIR
DAILY NEWS STAFF WRITER

THE ALREADY bizarre Long Island slavery trial got weirder yesterday when the Indonesian maid allegedly held against her will testified she was ordered to massage her employers when they were in bed together.

"I was massaging her when the mister was on top of her. The room was all dark. I couldn't see," the maid, who goes by the single Indonesian name Samirah, testified.

She said she massaged her mistress, Varsha Sabhnani, 45, after she underwent gastric bypass surgery. Her husband, Mahender Sabhnani, 51, was arrested in 2005.

"He would crawl while you were massaging him," said the federal court in Central Islip, N.Y.

"Yes," answered at least once, Mahender, and told her to massage his legs and feet. He moved to other parts of the body, including the buttocks and breasts.

Samirah has also been beaten, starved, and sexually abused in tawdry ways by the allegedly enslaved
